From "The Genealogy of the Dimond or Dimon Family of Fairfield, Conn.,"—a history of the descendants of Thomas Demont, Demond, or Dimond who died in Fairfield, Conn., in 1658. He was a mariner and owner of a bark of twelve tons, in October, 1658. His vessel and cargo was destroyed by fire. Savage's Genealogical Dictionary—Fairfield Town Records. The name was spelled in various ways, but his sons spelled it Dymond, Demon, or Dimond. It was commonly pronounced Deming and Demmond. It is probable that the Demmonds of Worcester, Mass., may be derived from this source.

WILLIAM C. DEMMOND DIES AFTER LONG ILLNESS.

HAD BEEN A RESIDENT OF WILL COUNTY

FOR SIXTY-SIX YEARS

William C. Demmond died yesterday at 2:30 p. m. at the home of his daughter, Mrs. T. E. Culbertson, 204 Union Street, of dropsy. He had been a resident of Will County for sixty-six years. The funeral will take place to-morrow at 3 P. M. from Mr. Culbertson's home. The services will be under the auspices of the Masonic fraternity.

William Charles Demmond, Son of Charles Demmond and Rebecca Holden, was born April 3, 1828, at Rutland, Mass. He came to Illinois with his parents in 1836 and settled in Troy Township. When a boy he was exposed to the hardships and privations suffered by the early settlers of those days in the struggle of conquering the forests and prairies, and winning amid many adverse circumstances the victories which made Illinois the garden of the West.

No luxuries and but crude comforts were known in those days, but out of such conditions came the rugged sturdiness which has won great victories for progress and civilization and marks with peculiar interest to us the characteristics of the departing sons and daughters of that period.

His activity began early, and when a mere boy he was employed on the stage line which then was the only means of communication that the Desplaines and Illinois valley towns had with Chicago and the East. Later he was employed on the surveying corps which first laid out the route of that part of the great Rock Island road between Chicago and La Salle.

In 1853 his ambition to become identified with the incoming new order of things was gratified by his employment as a locomotive fireman and a year or so later he was a full fledged engineer on the Rock Island road. He was successively employed on the Alton, Michigan Central and Illinois River roads, finishing his thirty years of service on the Michigan Central about 1886, and a better, braver or more faithful engineer never handled a throttle or met with nerve and decision the many moments of trial and danger which come to the man in the cab. Many stories are told among his associates of his skill and daring.

When failing strength compelled him to abandon the severer duties of the railroad, he was for two years in charge of the power plant of the Union Elevator, east of the city. Several years in the grocery business at the corner of Washington and Richards streets, closed his active business life, and the last few years of his life he has spent with his daughters, visiting his sons, Charles W. and Edward K. each winter at Savannah, Georgia. He was married on Feb. 12, 1856, to Clarissa Esther Beach, daughter of an early settler of Hadley, Will county. Her death occurred Dec. 12, 1897.

He leaves two sons and three daughters to mourn his departure, Charles W. and Edward K. of Savannah, Georgia, Mrs. T. E. Culbertson of Joliet, Mrs. Charles C. McClaughry and Mrs. Sanger Steel of Chicago.

Settled on the " Bear Swamp Farm. " Built a house in 1735 which stood until 1890. Cleared the farm and made it a good name. In 1758 or 9 he was a soldier in the French war, and marched to Canada and back. A powder horn carried by him is in the possession of M. H. Beach of Chicago, one of his descendants. The gun carried by him (a Queen's arm) is in the possession of Reuben Beach, son of Ebenezer Beach 2nd., and Matthew (Nichols) Beach one of his descendants. This same gun in the hands of Israel Beach killed the last bear in that section of the country from which the place took its name. The gun was carried by Eben Beach 2nd, while occupying a fort at the entrance of what now is Bridgeport Harbor to defend an expected raid from the English during the last war. He was a carpenter by trade. Died in 1793. Buried in Stratford old burying ground. His sons settled near him.

Graduated at Yale College in 1721. Ordained pastor of the Congregational Church at Newtown, Conn. in 1724. United with the Episcopal Church in 1732, April 9. Went to England for and obtained orders in the Episcopal Church. Labored as an Episcopal minister at Newtown, Conn. until his death in 1782 age 81 years. Fearless and faithful in the discharge of the duties of the church, he refused during the Revolution to omit the prayers for the King of England although his life was attempted, a soldier in shooting at him while preaching lodged a bullet in the sounding board over his head. He paused and said " Fear not him that can kill the body but rather fear him that can cast both soul and body into hell. " Then resumed his discourse.

Had 3 children in 1788.

He was the third child and eldest son of David Beach 2nd. and Ruth Hawley and was born Nov. 25th, 1753 on his father's farm in New Milford, Litchfield Co., Conn. and a soldier of the Revolution all through the war. July 12, 1775, together with his brother John he enlisted in Capt. Bostwick's Co. of the 7th. Conn. Regiment of Militia under Col. Charles Webb which was recruited in Fairfield, Litchfield County and New Haven County, and was stationed in companies along the coast of Long Island Sound. Sept. 14th., 1775, upon a requisition from Gen'l. Washington, the regiment was ordered to the Boston camps, and was there assigned to Gen'l. Sullivan's Brigade on Winter Hill in the left wing of our besieging line.

The regiment there remained until their term of enlistment expired in December 1775, and David Beach was discharged Dec. 2nd., 1775, but the regiment was re-enlisted and reorganized as Continental Troops under Col. Webb.

Jan. 1, 1777 David Beach was appointed sergeant, and that year was detailed on recruiting service for the 5th. Regiment of the Conn. Line, under Col. Phillip Bradley, for the war. The regiment was recruited mainly in Fairfield and Litchfield Counties, with men also from all parts of the state. They rendezvoused at Danbury, and in the spring of 1777 marched to Peekskill on the Hudson. In September of that year they were ordered to Pennsylvania with McDougall's Brigade, and on October 4th., 1777 were engaged, with loss, in the battle of Germantown. They were then assigned to Huntington's Brigade and passed the winter of 1777-1778 at Valley Forge.

June 28th. 1778 they fought the battle of Monmouth and then marched and joined the main army in camp at White Plains and were wintered 1778-79 at Redding, Conn.

David Beach was there on Dec. 1778 promoted to be an Ensign and it is probable that he was wounded this time and visited his home at New Milford but twenty miles away.

In the spring of 1779 the regiment was assigned to Gen. Heath's wing of the army on the East bank of the Hudson, and there the Light Company of this regiment was detached for service under Gen'l. Wayne, and took part in the storming of Stony Point, July 15th, 1779.

After this event the regiment marched to New Jersey and the following winter 1779-80 was passed in the huts at Morristown.

In the campaign of 1780 they were in the operations of the main army on both sides of the Hudson and the winter of 1780-81 was passed at Camp Conn., village opposite West Point and was consolidated there for the reformation of the line for the campaign of 1781-1783.

Nov. 13, 1781 David Beach was promoted to be a Lieutenant and was assigned to Captain Wright's Company of the 2nd. Regiment of the Conn. Line under Col. Herman Swift of Cornwall, Conn., and in December, 1782 the regiment was again consolidated for the 3rd. formation from Jan., 1783 to June, 1783, the war being then ended and the army disbanded.

Lieut. David Beach was made a member of the society of the Cincinnati, and on the rolls of that society his term of service is given as from Jan. 4th., 1778 to Jan., 1782. This probably covers his term of service in the field with the Conn. Line of the Continental Army and probably does not cover his service in the State Militia.

By some authorities it is supposed that his father, David Beach of New Milford, was also in the Militia service and that terms of service performed by the father have been accredited to the son : and there is good reason to believe David Beach, Sr. was in the Militia at the time of Gen. Tryon's invasion and the Darbury Alarm, and it is also very certain that the son David had seen service before he was appointed a sergeant and detailed for recruiting service.

His oldest child was born April 22d., 1781, and he had three children in 1788, when with his brothers John and Robert he removed to Hinesburg, Vt. and he was residing there June 30th., 1818 when he was placed on the pension roll as an ensign and received $ 1794.66 back pension and $ 240.00 a year. This however, he afterwards relinquished for the benefit of the Act of May 15, 1828.

His brother John was also a pensioner residing at Hinesburg.

FUNERAL OF THE LATE MRS. WM. C. DEMMOND YESTERDAY AFTERNOON. REVERENDS DR. LEWIS OF THIS CITY AND DR. DEAN OF MONMOUTH, CONDUCT THE SERVICES—BEAUTIFUL TRIBUTE PAID TO THE CHRISTIAN WOMANHOOD OF THE DECEASED—BURIAL AT OAKWOOD.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Wm. C. Demmond was held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. T. E. Culbertson, 204 Union street.

The house would not near accommodate the large concourse of friends who came to pay their tribute to the beautiful Christian life which had left its house of clay to live in the new heaven and the new earth. For years Mrs. Demmond stood out in this community a staunch exemplification of Puritan womanhood. Her friends were legion. Her little acts of Christian kindness had been given far and wide and hundreds of true and faithful friends gathered around the casket yesterday in loving sympathy with the mourners and with anthems of praise for the beautiful life that left a heritage richer than all else—a noble, blameless record of true and lofty womanhood.

The casket was fairly buried in a bank of flowers, the mute but loving testimonials of undying friendship. Wreaths and pillows of sweet amber-tinted roses, interwoven with spotless lilies and ferns rested one against the other.

The music was very appropriate and fine. The quartette composed of Misses Harbaugh and Davis and Messrs. Talcott and Brewster, sang three hymns—"In the Hour of Trial," "My Jesus As Thou Wilt," and "Asleep in Jesus."

The service was conducted by Reverends James Lewis of the Central Presbyterian church, and A. H. Dean of Monmouth, formerly of Dr. Lewis' church. Their remarks were very comforting to those who mourn and gave some idea of the great admiration which was universally showered upon the character, which was so true, so symmetrical and so pure.

Rev. Dr. Lewis spoke of the reasons why they should be especially thankful at this time. In the first place, because of such a life and its example. Her influence was far reaching and her example was a model for many who sought to live lives of the truest worth and most thoroughly Christian accomplishments.

Another reason for being thankful said Dr. Lewis, was because she had lived and died in the Christian faith, and she had been a living example of a perfect Christian life.

“According to the Scriptures” he said, “our afflictions work out in us the peaceable fruit of righteousness, and the far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory; while we can look not at the things that are seen but the things that are unseen. In this case we are privileged to look away from the things which are seen—sickness and suffering and pain and death and the grave—to unseen things as follows:

In the first place, we are assured that with her to be absent from the body is to be at home with the Lord. That death was to depart and be with Jesus, which is far better. Another unseen thing is the day of resurrection when the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel and with the trump of God; and the dead in Christ shall arise first, and the living believer shall be changed, and we shall be caught up together to meet the Lord in the air, and so shall be forever with the Lord.

“The final unseen thing is the new heaven and the new earth, which shall be the eternal abiding place of the redeemed in blessed fellowship with God, and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain, for the former things have passed away.”

Rev. Dr. Dean delivered the principal sermon. His remarks were more in the nature of a personal estimation of the grand life which he had known for many years. When Dr. Dean first came to Joliet years ago, a young minister then, Mrs. Demmond came to him with her great help and fought the battle of the church by his side.

Dr. Dean paid a beautiful tribute to her character, showing what Christ could do for one who believed in him. He also remarked the joy there was in having fellowship with Christ by fellowship with such followers. He spoke very beautifully of the ideal Christian character of Mrs. Demmond which had done so much good to the world about her.

The burial was at Oakwood.

WALKERS OF WOBURN AND BECKET.

The following information was obtained from Col. E. W. Foster, of Washington, D. C., previous to his death. He was a descendant of "Samuel of Woburn."

1. Captain Richard Walker, an immigrant to Lynn, Mass., in 1630.
2. Samuel, of Woburn.

2. WALKER, SAMUEL, OF WOBURN.

Children :

3. Israel, b. June 28, 1648, in Woburn or Reading.

13. Henry, b. Feb. 1, 1678 or 9, at Woburn ; d. at Hopkinton, date not ascertained but over 100 years old.

13. WALKER, HENRY.

Born Feb. 1, 1678

Died

Father, Israel Walker, No. 3.

Mother, Susannah Baldwin.

No. 13 was married Oct. 15, 1700,

To Ruth Kendall (Walker)

Born

Died

Daughter of Thomas and Ruth Kendall, of Woburn, and widow of his cousin, John Walker.

Children :

14. Henry, b. Aug. 15, 1701.

15. Susannah b. Sept. 18, 1703 ; d. Oct. 11, 1703.

16. Josiah, b. May 11, 1705, in Woburn.

17. Israel, b. Nov. 6, 1709 ; d. May 29, 1798.

18. Susannah, b. April 4, 1712.

No other children seem to have been born to them.

In 1725 Henry and his wife moved to Hopkinton, selling their home in Woburn at that date to Jacob Fowle, Sen.

16. WALKER, JOSIAH.

Born May 11, 1705, in Woburn

Died

Father

Mother

No. 16 was married in 1729

To Mary Forbush, widow of Isaac Shattuck of Westborough, in Worcester County.

Daughter of Jonathan and Mary (Holloway) Forbush.

Children :

19. Phebe, b. Sept. 19, 1730 ; bapt. in Westboro, Nov.
24, 1734.

20. Timothy, b. Feb. 6, 1732 or 3.

21. Silas, b. Mar. 17, 1734 or 5.

22. Jonathan, b. July 11, 1737.

23. Susannah, b. Sept. 9, 1739.

24. Hannah, b. April 17, 1743.

Josiah Walker lived with his father and removed with him to Hopkinton. It does not appear that either of them bought land in that town.

The records show that he lived on the Shattuck place for eleven years ; this is shown in the settlement of the estate.

The records also show that Josiah Walker of Westborough bought of Samuel Watson of Leicester, on May 22, 1739, lot No. 30 of "Tonic" No. 4, 40 acres. "Tonic" No. 4 is now Becket. In 1746 he sold the same place and in 1750 he bought of Jonathan Forbush all the "rights" of Forbush in No. 4. In the last mentioned deed he is said to be "of Simsbury, Conn."

Here there seems to be a discrepancy between Colonel Foster's account and that given by the other descendants of Josiah Walker. Colonel Foster gives Josiah Walker's birth as May 11, 1705. Our date for his birth is May 24, 1706.

Colonel Foster does not give his marriage to Mary Gooding and does not, in the above list, give his son Ebenezer, though he afterward mentions him.

This leads me to conclude that the following is an account of Josiah Walker's second marriage, and the date of Ebenezer's birth strengthens that assumption.

16. WALKER, JOSIAH.

Born May 24, 1706, at Becket, Mass. According to Col. E. W.

Foster, Maltby building, Washington, D. C., this Josiah is descended from Samuel Walker, of Woburn, and married Mary Forbursh, widow of Isaac Shattuck, of Westborough.

"Jonathan Walker was elected constable at first town meeting of Becket, Mass., July 15, 1765."

Page 599.—"Jonathan Walker and his wife passed their first winter here alone near Walker's brook. During the winter Mr. Walker cut his foot badly and they needed assistance. Their nearest neighbors were in Blandford, some miles away, an unbroken wilderness lying between. Mrs. Walker dared not leave her husband while she went for aid, but, taking the bloody bandages from her husband's foot she fastened them around the horse's neck and started him for Blandford. There, at length, the animal arrived with his blood-written message, and the desired assistance came."

THE FAMILY GENEALOGY OF THE TILDEN AND HYNSONS.

TYLDEN OR TILDEN.

Charles Tylden was the second son of Marmaduke Tylden, who was seated at Great Oak Manor, in Kent Co., Md. in or about the year 1658. Marmaduke Tylden was first cousin to Sir Richard Tylden of Milsted, who died in 1659, and a grandson of Sir William Tylden, of Great Tyldens in the Parish of Mardon, Kent County, England.

Sir Burke, in his Landed Gentry, says:

The Family of the Tildens, one of great antiquity, has been seated in Kent, England, for several centuries. Of the three distinct branches into which it separated, the eldest branch became possessed of Milstead, in Kent Co., England. The second removed to Sussex, England, and a third member emigrated to America, and founded the Tildens of this Country. The Ancient family possessed land in various parishes of England, and as far back as the reign of Edward III, we find William Tylden paying aid for land in Kent, (England), when the Black Prince was knighted.

Sir William Tylden, of Great Tyldens, the grandfather of Marmaduke Tylden, of Great Oak Manor, of Kent Co., Md. was descended from Sir Richard Tylden, who was living in the reign of Henry II, and afterward fought under Richard Coeur de Lion at the Siege of Acre, against Saladin, the Great Saladin being then and there defeated A. D. 1190.

There then follows in lineage order, Sir Richard Tylden, who married Gertrude, of Lord de Frodsham. Sir Henry Tylden married to Phillipa of Sir R'h'd Botelor.

Sir Wm. Tylden, son of Sir Henry, was living at time of Edward III, and fought in ye van of ye English army, commanded by ye Lord Audley under ye Black Prince at ye battle of Poictiers A. D. 1356. He married Constance, of Lord de Mollington, Cheshire.

Sir William Tylden married daughter of Sir Matthew Elis, Chester.

Sir Thomas Tylden married Alice of Lord Tranmore.

Sir John Tylden married Isabel, daughter of Sir Roger Cotgreave.

Sir William Tylden, son of above, married Elizabeth, daughter of James Yonge, Gentleman, of Tunstal, Kent Co., England. He was of Great Tyldens in the Parish of Marden, and was ancestor to the Tyldens of Great Oak Manor, Kent Co., Maryland.

The above lineage of the Tylden family has been furnished from authentic papers in the possession of Sir John Cotgreave, Knight, and the armorial bearings of the family show that they were married, as a family, at the time of William of Normandy, or the Conqueror, into the family of Fitzhugh, the first Norman Earl of Chester.

Marmaduke Tylden, of Great Oak Manor, Kent Co., Maryland, was grandson of the last named Sir William Tylden, of Great Tyldens, England, and his wife Elizabeth. They had three sons, as follows: Marmaduke, Charles and John Tilden.

Marmaduke (the son) was a very large land owner in Kent Co., Md. He owned at one time (1709) thirty one thousand acres and over. He married Rebecca Wilmer. Their children were respectively named Marmaduke, Jane, Mary, Wealthy Ann, Charles and Martha.

Wealthy Ann Tylden, daughter of Marmaduke and Rebecca Wilmer Tilden, married Oct. 19th, 1710 to Thomas Hynson, their children being Margaret, Charles, born Jan. 14th, 1713, Martha Waltman and Mary.

Charles Hynson, son of Thomas and Wealthy Ann Tilden Hynson, married Nov. 30th., 1739 to Phoebe Carvill, and died in 1782. The children of Charles and Phoebe Carvill Hynson, were born and named as follows: Charles, born Oct. 9th. 1741, Charles Carvill, born Dec. 11th. 1743, Mary, born May 21st., 1746, Richard, born Feb. 3rd., 1749, and John Carvill Hynson.

Charles Hynson, son of Charles and Phoebe Carvill Hynson married Sarah Waltham, and had the following children, Charles, John, Thomas, Sarah, Hannah, Richard, Edward and Martha.

John Hynson married Sarah Morgan, daughter of Charles Morgan.

Sarah Tilden Hynson, daughter of John and Sarah Hynson, was born Nov. 9th. 1792, Kent Co., Md.

Sarah Tilden Hynson, married David Carson, son of John and Sarah Carson of Hartford county, Md. on Oct. 31st. 1816, and had the following children: John, David, Joshua, Sarah, Jane, Anna Rebecca, Joseph Henry, William McKendree, Carvill Hynson and Thomas Edward.

Carvill Hynson Carson, son of David and Sarah Tilden Carson, was born in Baltimore, Md. Nov. 14th., 1830.

Carvill Hynson Carson married Sarah Frances Gere, daughter of Rev. Dr. John A. and Sarah Gere, May 24th. 1855 in Baltimore, Md. and had the following children: John A. G., Sarah Augusta, Carvill Hynson, Hattie Gere, David C., Helen Neal and Fannie Hynson.

Thomas Hynson, born 1621, died 1666; emigrated to America circa 1650, and settled at Isle of Kent, Maryland, in 1652. He was appointed one of the Commissioners for governing and holding Court in Kent Island, Md., Member of the Assembly in 1654; in 1655 was High Sheriff Burgess from Kent County; 1659 married Grace.
